

To whom it may, or may not concern. I commute 60 miles one way to work in the Detroit, MI area. I use the traffic and weather channels daily to check conditions. Where I live I don't have access to that information until it's too late, traffic jam, and I would greatly appreciate the FCC leaving XM Radio and its greatly needed benefits ALONE.